

21. Since Jesus loves you and died for you, will you:

- Ask Jesus to control your life,
- Bear testimony to others of His love, and
- Consider your acceptance of Jesus a life and death matter?

Ans: _____.

THE VILLAIN OF THE DRAMA OF REVELATION

A brief review of the Book of Revelation quickly reveals several crucial points.

- 1 A terrifying, deadly, organized conflict between good and evil is taking place on this earth.
- 2 Jesus, the Son of God, powerfully leads the forces of good with love, courage, wisdom, kindness, patience, integrity, gentleness, serenity, sympathy, compassion, tact and geniality. His leadership style is one of concern and fair play for even His worst enemies. He is worthy of our worship because He is our Creator and our Redeemer.
- 3 Someone, on the other hand, powerfully leads the forces of evil in relentless, devastating assaults upon Jesus and His people. That someone, according to the Book of Revelation, is the devil and Satan. As a leader, he is militant, venomous, heartless, hateful and unscrupulous. Yet, incredible as it may seem, he also asks for our worship.

We were created in the beginning with the desire to worship.
The shocking, sobering facts are that every person on this planet is, this very day, either worshipping Jesus or giving homage to Satan. Many pay homage to Satan innocently. They would turn from him in disgust if his evil strategies were exposed. The central purpose of this seminar is to expose the archenemy and to uplift Jesus, our Creator, Lord and Saviour.
